Requesting to order insertion of article 258 A in the Mysore Police Manual Vol.I

4)

Article 258 (A). It is not necessary for Superintendents to go to Bangalore to instruct the Government Advocate in all the appeal cases in the Chief Court. If, in any particular case it is considered by the District Magistrate that the deputation of the Superintendent is necessary for the purpose, then the Superintendent may undertake the journey to Bangalore with the previous sanction of the Inspector General of Police. In all other cases in which the District Magistrate considers that personal instructions should be given to the Government Advocate the Prosecuting Inspectors or investigating Officers may be entrusted with this work.
